Fair Share/Mind Share

- Fair Share: In the beginning of a business, the desire is to just get a fair share of the clients business.
- Mind Share: As the business matures, fair share is not good enough, we want to be the "Go To" Player for the entire solution to the client.

1. Why are we chasing new accounts & allowing competition to gain a foothold in "our" client base?

1. Is it because of the revenue goals being aggressive?
2. Do we have revenue goals for core clients?
3. Do we have the same rep for core clients as we do new business?
4. Are the incentives greater for new business than they are for core client upgrades and add-ons?
